Wellness in the wilderness: The KENBALI SPA at Severin Safari Camp's in Kenya's Tsavo West National Park. The sculpture (centre) was designed by famous metal sculptor Jan Skuin from Berlin and represents „Freedom of senses“.

Pure relaxation with soft massages. The massage area (centre) offers a free view over the savannah. Kenyan coffee (right) isn't only useful for drinking: as a beauty peeling it stimulates the blood circulation – thus rejuvenating the skin.

Tropical health: Pineapple contains valuable enzymes to support fat-burning. Enjoy a hair wash just like Karen Blixen in „Out of Africa“ after your safari (centre) or simply relax on the terrace.

Adventurous Africa: Games drives with an open-air jeep

African pioneer: Severin owner Severin Schulte

Bush-breakfast de luxe under a Baobab tree

Dream holidays in Kenya: Delicious food, good company (centre). A Masai will be happy to show you how to make a fire during a walking safari (right).

Black magic: Kerosene lamps set a romantic light in your safari tent
